7. SPOUSAL CONSENT (SPOUSE MUST COMPLETE IF ACCOUNT HOLDER DOES NOT DESIGNATE HIS/HER SPOUSE AS THE SOLE PRIMARY BENEFICIARY ENTITLED TO 100% OF THE ACCOUNT BALANCE)

Your spouse has an account in the retirement Plan listed in section 1 of this Beneficiary Designation Form. The money in the account that your spouse will be entitled to receive is called the vested account. Federal law states that if your spouse (the participant) has not yet received the entire balance of his or her vested account at the time of his or her death, you will receive 100% of the vested account after your spouse dies.

Your right to your spouse's vested account provided by federal law cannot be taken away unless you agree. If you agree, your spouse can elect to have all or part of the vested account paid to someone else. Each person your spouse chooses to receive a part of the vested account is called a "beneficiary." For example, if you agree, your spouse can have all or a portion of the vested account paid to his or her children instead of you.

Your spouse cannot have the vested account paid to someone else unless you agree and sign this agreement. Your choice must be voluntary. It is your personal decision whether you want to give up your right to your spouse's vested account. You may give specific consent or general consent by checking the related box below.

Specific Consent (If no selection is made between specific and general consent, the default is specific consent.)

If you sign this agreement, your spouse cannot change the beneficiary named in this agreement to anyone other than you, unless you agree to the new beneficiary by signing a new agreement.

I am the spouse of _____. I understand that I have the right to all of my spouse's vested account that remains undistributed in the plan after my spouse dies. I agree to give up the right to _____ percent of the account and to have that amount paid to the beneficiaries elected by my spouse.

I understand that my spouse cannot change the name of any beneficiary in the future unless I agree to the change.

I understand that by signing this agreement, I may receive less money than I would have received if I had not signed this agreement and I may receive nothing from the Plan after my spouse dies.

I understand that I do not have to sign this agreement. I am signing this agreement voluntarily.

I understand that if I do not sign this agreement, then I will receive any remaining portion of my spouse's vested account under the plan when my spouse dies.

General Consent

If you sign this agreement, your spouse can choose the beneficiary who will receive all or part of the vested account without telling you and without getting your agreement. Your spouse can change the beneficiary at any time before the account is paid out.

You have the right to agree to allow your spouse to select only a particular beneficiary. If you want to allow your spouse to select only a particular beneficiary, do not sign this section of the (instead, sign the specific consent above) form.

I am the spouse of _____ . I understand that I have the right to all of my spouse's vested account that remains undistributed in the Plan after my spouse dies.

I agree to give up the right to _____ percent of the account and to have that amount paid to someone else as the beneficiary. I understand that by signing this agreement, my spouse can choose the beneficiary of the vested account without telling me and without getting my agreement. I also understand that by signing this agreement, my spouse can change the beneficiary of the vested account in the future without telling me and without getting my agreement again.

I understand that by signing this agreement, I may receive less money than I would have received if I had not signed this agreement and I may receive nothing from the plan after my spouse dies.

I understand that I can limit my spouse's choice to a particular beneficiary who will receive the vested account balance and that I am giving up that right.

I understand that I do not have to sign this agreement. I am signing this agreement voluntarily.

I understand that if I do not sign this agreement, then I will receive any remaining portion of my spouse's account under the plan when my spouse dies.
